15. (Unclassified - ELS) LIAISON Paul Janarov, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress, called asking for a phone number of an analyst who could give him a briefing on the political situation in Lebanon. I asked if he was seeking classified information and he said no. I then suggested he contact the Department of State and he said he already had. I then asked if there was something in particular he was after and he said no, but he would think about it and maybe get back to us.

16. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Called Janice O'Connell, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and told her that the Committee would start receiving the classified "Economic Intelligence Weekly Review" per her request of 25 May. I informed her that the publications would be delivered to Norvill Jones, Chief of Staff, and must be returned to the Agency when the Committee no longer has a use for them. She thanked me for the assistance.

STAT 17. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Per his conversation with [redacted], OLC, sent via mail to Montgomery Winkler, Administrative Assistant to Representative Robert Lagomarsino (R., Calif.), a copy of the January 1978 National Basic Intelligence Factbook.

18. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Per his request of today, sent via courier to Greg Dow, in the office of Senator Bob Packwood (R., Ore.), a wall-size boundary map of Africa.

STAT 19. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON At the request of [redacted] OLC, called Audrey Hatry, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and read to her the proposed answer to inquiries regarding the Seymour Hersh article in the New York Times on covert action, which was to be used by Jody Powell at a press conference today. I asked her to pass it on to Bill Miller, Staff Director.

STAT 20. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON At the request of [redacted] OLC, called Joyce, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and read to her the proposed answer to inquiries regarding the Seymour Hersh article in the New York Times on covert action, which was to be used by Jody Powell at a press conference today. I asked her to pass it on to Tom Latimer, Staff Director.
